

JUNIATA VALLEY COUNCIL BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA.

Capital Development

Since 2004, the Juniata Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America along with friends and community supporters have invested nearly $1,000,000 in Seven Mountains Scout Camp in regular maintenance and capital improvements.

A new lodge, pavilions, infrastructure and more have been beneficial, but increased demand for our facilities from Scouting and non-Scouting groups alike inspire us to continue to our mission in Meeting Tomorrow's Challenge. Today.

Nationally Recognized Quality Programming for Youth

The Juniata Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America is 1 of 19 councils nationally to have achieved the Gold Journey to Excellence Award all 5 years it has been presented.

Meeting Tomorrow's Challenge. Today.

The Juniata Valley Council is the sole provider of Scouting programs partnering with 83 community organizations to serve over 1,200 youth in Centre, Huntingdon, Juniata, and Mifflin counties of Central Pennsylvania and has an operating budget of $720,000. Our Meeting Tomorrow's Challenge Major Gifts effort will enable us to sustain the highest standards for our program delivery & adult training and allow us to focus on innovation, growth and programmatic strategic needs.

Seven Mountains Scout Camp is our year round outdoor education and recreational center, that is in need of significant upgrade to better meet the needs of the thousands of young people and community organizations that utilize it every year. Our vision includes upgrade and expansion of our facilities, add more functional and accessible accommodations, restroom facilities, and a family camping area that will create a unique experience in providing new outdoor opportunities not only for Scouting programs but the community.

Expansion of program areas including environmental education will give equip young people for tomorrows challenge. Expansion of local partnerships will provide a unique complement of nature study areas for the youth of our region covering multiple habitats and ecosystems for our communities to observe and study.

Sustainability upgrades to improve the efficiency of our lighting around camp will reduce our energy consumption, lower our operating costs and demonstrate good stewardship and complement our existing recycling and waste reduction efforts.

The Juniata Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America and Seven Mountains Scout Camp want to play a significant role in partnering and sharing our premiere outdoor educational and outdoor facility.

Creating Lifelong Skills and Memories

I'm impressed with Cub Day Camp. I love it. He's learning new skills and teamwork. He can't wait to come back next year. Next time he does this, he wants to spend the night."

"He has become more confident since joining Cub Scouts. He made a new friend since he joined. He always looks forward to meetings and he especially loved the history tour of his hometown that he did with his Cub Scout pack."

"I believe it has strengthened my own son and helped him establish and work toward achieving goals. And I believe in the scouting program myself, for so many reasons."

The Cabin at Wald Village & The Troop 32 Loft

An Eagle Scout, David Kurtz fondly remembers camping in Wald Village in the 1950's when the cabin was brand new.

His memories and involvement as an Assistant Scoutmaster in Boy Scout Troop 32 inspired him to give back to the Troop and Scouting with a cabin at Seven Mountains Scout Camp

Cabin Features: Sleeps sixteen in three separate sleeping areas; a loft; wood burner interior heat and a fireplace facing an outside deck. One full restroom entrance inside, with two restrooms accessible from the outside for upper site access.

The John and Betta Kriner Endowment Fund

John M. and Betta H. Kriner have been long time friends of the Juniata Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America and Seven Mountains Scout Camp.

While John and young John were active in Troop, district and council activities, Betta's support came from behind the scenes and at various council functions.

In making their commitment to establish the John M. and Betta H. Kriner Endowment Fund they wanted to insure that the John M. Kriner II Lodge was always maintained as a tribute to their son to serve current and future Scouts and community visitors.

The Fund will be invested through the Boy Scouts of America Asset Management Commingled Endowment Fund, LP to which the Juniata Valley Council is a Limited Partner.

Endowing Scouting's Future

The Juniata Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America's Endowment Fund provide additional funds to help operate Scouting in the Juniata Valley Council as well as maintain facilities at Seven Mountains Scout Camp.

Assets have increased from $491,061 on December 31, 2005 to $839,968 on December 31, 2015.

Donors such as Mrs. Doreen Bailey have generously endowed portions of camp to ensure our facilities remain safe and for future use by Scouts,

The Endowment Fund is invested through the Boy Scouts of America Asset Management Commingled Endowment Fund, LP to which the Juniata Valley Council is a Limited Partner. Low management fees means your support goes further.

Additionally, the Juniata Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America/Seven Mountains Scout Camp benefit from endowed funds established through the Centre Foundation.
